THE TRUE COLOUR OF NZ GOVERNMENT

IS DEMOCRACY DEAD IN NEW ZEALAND?

Have the New Zealand governments done anything in the last 10 years that has really benefited the people? You might think that surely, they must have done good things as well. At least for themselves but unfortunately and apparently, the common people haven't seen or received anything which could have made their lives better... On the contrary.

On the other hand, the frightening way how the government cracked down on peaceful demonstrators in Wellington not so long ago, using brutal police force, beating aged people, children and others bloody, shows the true colour of the present government with the PM, Jacinda Ardern.

The mainstream media pictured her with big enthusiasm as an empathic leader for a couple of years ago, for a questionable reason. But if you happened to have just a little knowledge of body language or just gut feeling, you surely had other opinions. She has shown by now a different side of her personality: she apparently doesn't have much if any empathy, compassion or love towards NZ people, her own nation. She talked about a large group of people (she doesn't even have a clue, how large it is!) with contempt and disdain. Her attitude was very aggressive, so contemptuous and disdainful that many Kiwis felt a knife stabbed in their hearts. She showed clearly for everyone that she doesn't care at all for the good of all Kiwis, on the contrary... By now many people have fallen out of love with her, of course...

You might also need to question the mental state of those policemen who was beating people bloody. Their own compatriots, among them children, aged people and others. Are there many in the police force of Mrs Arden with this kind of sick, sadist and nazi behaviour and attitude? Or have they become beasts at her command? What does this whole thing tell us about the police force and the whole government in NZ?

What a shameful act, what a shameful event in the history of New Zealand!

In a country which has traditionally and internationally been appreciated and respected during so long time for a peaceful and tolerant attitude towards others. A country which gave women the right to vote very first in the world!

Maybe we wouldn't need to go as far as below:
"Some people (quite many actually) think that Jacinda Ardern, together with other world leaders of today are from the evil force, either from the vicious Kazahrians or the hostile reptilian alien race, and now they exist like some kind of hybrids who have no empathy, no compassion and are in total lack of love. In other words, they are the representatives of the evil, of the distorted consciousness, the aversion of life, which is the opposite of God."

Is it a total nonsense? Maybe, or maybe not. You cannot be sure about anything anymore in this world full of lies, manipulations, brainwashing, doubts and fears. But one thing everybody can be absolutely sure about. Something is utterly wrong with the world leaders on our planet today, including Jacinda Ardern and her puppets in our country!

WHAT PEOPLE IN THIS COUNTRY AND IN THE WHOLE WORLD REALLY NEED, IS A TOTAL SYSTEM CHANGE!!!

We, the people, don't need a change in PMs, or political parties, because they are all, at the end of the day, the same lame and evil beings nowadays; they are all alike and also are good friends behind the scenes, regardless which party they belong to. Just think about how much damage John Key, or likewise Jacinda Ardern have both done to the people of this country! They have created bigger and bigger poverty except for themselves and their puppets.

So away with all corrupt, people-hostile governments!

Another aspect: When the NZ mainstream media and the whole western media with all their followers condemn Putin (and rightly so) for threatening people with 15 years of prison if they spread misinformation about the Ukrainian – Russian War, then we all need to pause a bit! For, actually, who committed this condemnable action-crime of threatening and even sentencing people in this manner for the very first time, completely openly, in modern western history? Who?

The PM in New Zealand,
Jacinda Ardern,
after 15 March, 2019!!!

She put in prison a teenager (!!!) who happened to have a worthless video which had been circulating on the internet for weeks!!! And what was her reason to put that boy in jail? Well, she suddenly decided that the video which the boy had on his own device and which got somehow 'discovered and revealed' was misinformation! And remember! After this event, Google followed quickly her example by closing down certain sites for different reasons, like for having 'misinformation' about moon landing, about 2011, herbs, homeopathy, etc... This kind of things have never happened before... There is, of course, a pattern in these things. But the war against the people did actually begin at that time, in 2019, with Jacinda Ardern.

*So it wasn't Putin who committed this misinformation crime- thing for the first time in modern times in the western world. No. It was actually Jacinda Ardern!

So let those who can be proud of her and her politics, be proud...

But then they shouldn't condemn Putin so vehemently either. Not for that.

Many have understood by now that this economic and societal crisis has been intentionally created by world leaders and their puppets through their Covid propaganda. Here in New Zealand it was done by Jacinda Ardern and her 'servants'. There is no excuse for what she and they all have done...

But now, Jacinda Ardern wants the ordinary people to pay economically, socially and mentally for her bad decisions and wrongdoings. It doesn't matter, by the way, whose commands and advice she followed. She was the one who executed those directives, so all of that is her responsibility! She has more responsibility than just to lift the Prime Minister's high salary and other financial benefits!!! Meanwhile the people in NZ are getting ever poorer.

So why not let her, and all her controllers and advisors, all world leaders and their rich friends, supporters and puppets share immediately their wealth with the ordinary people, so that each and every person in the whole world, also in New Zealand get a decent, worthy and abundant life!!!! Finally!

Yes, they should share their wealth with the people because they have obtained it, rather ripped it off from hard working people, whom they have been forcing to sweaty economic and societal slavery all the time, giving them just breadcrumbs back.

IT'S PAYBACK TIME NOW!
FINALLY!

AS THE FRENCH AUTHOR VICTOR HUGO FAMOUSLY SAID,

*'An invasion of armies can be resisted
but not an idea
whose time has come'*

(Histoire d'un crime, 1852).

THOUGHT-PROVOKING LETTER

Reading this letter can be a life - and mind - changer... It was written assumedly by a talented politician or an investigative journalist with a very deep insight into the political life of NZ.

Name is withheld to protect the author of the article from the left wing discentors.

“Dear Jacinda

When you became Labour Party leader, seven weeks before the 2017 election, you had been a little-known list MP.

We now know that nine months before being elected to Parliament in 2008, you had become President of the International Union of Socialist Youth. The fact that instead of immediately resigning from that role after becoming an MP, you continued on as President for a further fifteen months, should have caused concern - especially after a video emerged showing you referring to conference attendees as “comrades” fifteen times in seven minutes.

Being trusting people, we didn’t think that meant you were a communist. We saw the media fawning over your elevation to Party leader so enthusiastically that the term “Jacindamania” was coined. And we noted that these media cheerleaders gave you favourable coverage during the election campaign.

In spite of that, Labour received 956,000 votes or 36.9 percent, while 1,152,000 New Zealanders - 44.4 percent – supported National.

That result showed the country had overwhelmingly voted for conservatism and stability.

But Winston Peters, holding the balance of power and ignoring the wishes of the majority of voters, anointed you as our 40th Prime Minister. Kiwis are fair-minded, and you were given the chance to prove yourself. But while you had great communication skills, and what appeared to be genuine empathy, it soon became clear that true to your hard line roots you intended to impose destructive socialist extremism onto New Zealand.

The first indication of your intention was your unilateral decision to ban new deep sea oil drilling to effectively close down New Zealand's oil and gas industry. This was done without warning, without consultation, and without Cabinet approval, on the eve of your first overseas trip as Prime Minister - allegedly so you could look decisive on the world stage.

We saw this again following the Christchurch terror attack - even though the perpetrator was a deranged foreigner, you cracked down on the rights of law-abiding Kiwi firearm owners without warning, consultation, or proper justification. Driven by a seemingly insatiable desire for international recognition, you appeared oblivious to the livelihoods and lifelong interests you were destroying.

 We then became concerned in 2019 to hear you tell a meeting hosted by Bill Gates, that without our knowledge, you were imposing the United Nations Agenda 2030 onto New Zealand: "My Government is doing something not many other countries have tried. We have incorporated the principles of the 2030 Agenda into our domestic policy-making in a way that we hope will drive system-level actions. I believe that the change in approach that we have adopted in New Zealand is needed at a global scale."

But while you were successfully embedding the UN's socialist agenda into every regulation and law change, your election promises of building affordable housing, reducing homelessness, and eliminating child poverty were all turning into dismal failures.

And even though the media had largely stuck by you, by the end of 2019 the growing discontent - especially within the business and farming sectors that were facing a tsunami of restrictive rules and regulations - was so widespread it was reflecting in the polls, indicating yours was likely to be a one-term government. That is until Covid-19 came along early in election year.

Covid became a socialist leader's dream. It enabled emergency measures curtailing freedom and liberty to be embedded into every facet of our lives - with minimal Parliamentary scrutiny. Under the guise of fighting Covid you hired a multi-million-dollar Rolls Royce communications team to provide you with expert advice: as long as you could keep fear of Covid top of mind right up to voting day, your re-election was assured. And that's exactly what happened. Winning over 50 percent support from New Zealanders was a remarkable achievement. On election night you assured the country you would govern for 'all' Kiwis: "We will not take your support for granted. And I can promise you, we will be a party that governs for every New Zealander."

WE WANTED TO BELIEVE YOU.

But we now know, those words were a lie. The separatist agenda you unleashed is unprecedented in New Zealand's history.

We now know that you concealed the 'He Puapua' blueprint- to replace democracy with tribal rule - for 12 months prior to the election.

That report reveals your plan is to introduce 50:50 co-governance, to give the Maori elite, who represent just 15 percent of the population, disproportionate power and unimaginable authority over the lives of the 85 percent of other New Zealanders.

Why did you not tell us during the election campaign that you intended to transfer democratic power to an unelected and unaccountable tribal aristocracy so they can control New Zealand for their own benefit?

Since you didn't reveal those intentions before the election, you have no mandate from New Zealanders to replace democracy with tribal rule. And while you have denied 'He Puapua' is Labour Party policy, it's clear that is another lie.

New Zealanders are not stupid

– we have read the He Puapua report and we can see that the laws you are now enacting are part of this agenda for tribal control. In health, when you realised that a Maori Health Authority with the right of veto over the entire health system couldn't be established under the decentralised District Health Board model, without any consultation you announced that DHBs would be abolished.

You have no mandate to replace community control of health with a centralised apartheid bureaucracy prioritising Maori over those with more serious medical needs.

Putting race ahead of need is not the New Zealand way. It is shocking and callous. How can anyone with genuine empathy and a clear conscience possibly think it's OK?

AND RESTRUCTURING THE ENTIRE HEALTH SYSTEM
DURING A PANDEMIC IS NOT ONLY
IDEOLOGICAL MADNESS
BUT IT BORDERS ON BEING CRIMINALLY RECKLESS

In education you are allowing Maori extremists to dictate the curriculum and indoctrinate children with a worldview that denigrates our history and the people who helped build our nation.

In local government, you abolished the democratic rights of local communities to reject plans to divide them by race. It seems clear that this was the first step towards the He Puapua goal of tribal control of local authorities. You have no mandate for your disastrous Three Waters proposal to give control of ratepayer-funded water infrastructure and services to the Maori tribal elite. Communities up and down the country are outraged at this blatant seizing of local assets - and the transfer of democratic control that will undoubtedly lead to the imposition of royalties to Maori whenever a Kiwi tap is turned on.

And what about your plan to silence opponents through proposed hate speech laws? You did not seek a mandate to 'criminalise' someone for political views - such as criticising Labour politicians or Maori supremacists - yet that is what your draft law changes are proposing.

Nor did you seek a mandate to effectively buy media support for your plan for tribal rule. You campaigned on funding the media, but you did not explain that the $55 million Public Interest Journalism Fund would be contingent on supporting the fabricated Maori 'partnership' claim that underpins He Puapua. In some countries, political leaders who attempt to unduly influence the media through taxpayer funding, are being accused of corruption.

What hold does the tribal elite have over you? Why are you prepared to sacrifice the democratic rights of all New Zealanders, so they can have power? Kind people may think that you are simply naive and being duped by your Maori caucus. Others believe that creating disunity is part of your socialist DNA.

When it comes to your management of Covid, we are now witnessing the loss of liberty on a scale unimaginable from a New Zealand Prime Minister. You have given yourself the authority to control our lives, even to the point of allowing police - or their 'agents' - to enter our homes and businesses without a warrant.

Now, through vaccine mandates - that you promised before the election you would not introduce - you are dividing our nation and trampling over sacred civil liberties and democratic rights protected by the New Zealand Bill of Rights. In 1990, when Labour Prime Minister Geoffrey Palmer was introducing the Bill of Rights in Parliament, he explained that it was a safeguard to protect New Zealanders against the unbridled power of future governments: "It is unlikely that there will be a wholesale disregard of human rights in New Zealand in the foreseeable future, but... we cannot afford to wait until rights disappear before we take action, because it is too late by that stage. It is better to have a Bill of Rights when it is not needed than to not have one when it is needed."

Now, twenty-one years later, you are leading a government that is doing exactly what he believed would never happen in New Zealand - you are stomping on the basic human rights of New Zealanders.

This is not the New Zealand way - and it is not what voters thought they were getting when they gave you the responsibility of leading our country for the benefit of all. You have betrayed us, and we have lost trust in you and your Government.

That's why we don't love you anymore, Jacinda - and why we want you to resign!!!
Yours sincerely..."

PURSLANE

Purslane is known scientifically as Portulaca oleracea, and is also called pigweed, little hogweed, fatweed and pusley.

It is best known as a weed. However, it is also an edible and highly nutritious green, leafy vegetable that can be eaten raw or cooked. It is loaded with all sorts of nutrients, including omega-3 fatty acids.

It is a succulent plant which contains about 93% water. It has a slightly sour or salty taste, similar to spinach and watercress. It can be used in many of the same ways as spinach and lettuce, such as in salads or sandwiches.

Purslane has a long history of use in traditional/alternative medicine.

It contains:

Vitamin A (from beta-carotene)

Vitamin C

Magnesium

Manganese

Potassium

Iron

Calcium

Small amounts of vitamins B1, B2, B3, folate
copper and phosphorus

You get all of these nutrients with only 16 calories! This makes it one of the most nutrient-dense foods on the planet, calorie for calorie.

While purslane is low in total fat, a large portion of the fat it does contain is in the form of omega-3 fatty acids. It contains two types of omega-3 fatty acids, ALA and EPA. ALA is found in many plants, but EPA is found mostly in animal products (like fatty fish) and algae. Compared to other greens, it is exceptionally high in ALA. It contains 5-7 times more ALA than spinach.

The teenager lost a contact lens while playing basketball in his driveway. After a brief, fruitless search, he gave up. His mother took up the cause and within minutes found the lens.

– “How did you do that?” he asked.

– “We weren’t looking for the same thing, she explained. You were looking for a small piece of plastic. I was looking for $150.”
