

'RAKHE RAKHANHAR'

The complete protection for the Aquarius period

This mantra is for complete protection. It is called the victory song of the Aquarius period which allows us to be guided by God's graceful and merciful hand. It does away with the obstacles to fulfilling one's destiny. It adds energy to one's being, and helps when you are physically weak or have limited wealth. Chanting this mantra helps against fluctuations of the mind as well.

Visualize that you (your family and anyone else that comes to your mind) are completely protected in the crystal pyramid of the Almighty God Mother under the guardianship of the Archangel Michael. The walls of the pyramid are dazzling white and opaque, you can see and reach out from there, but no one can see in or come in without permission.

Say loud:

"RAKHE RAKHANHAR" (3x3)

([Rak-he Rakhanhar] = "Thou who savest, save us all and take us across")
