Japan Breaks Silence on mRNA Vaccine Deaths in Children – Scientists Accuse Bill Gates of Global Conspiracy

Tokyo, Japan — According to reliable sources in an unprecedented move, the Japanese government has declared a national state of emergency following a sharp and unexplained spike in child fatalities — all with one chilling common thread: mRNA vaccination.

What began as isolated whispers in hospital corridors has erupted into a nationwide medical uprising. Paediatric ICUs are overwhelmed. Autopsy reports are raising red flags. And behind the chaos, a pattern is forming — one that Japan can no longer ignore.

Top Japanese Scientists Break Ranks: “This Is a Global Crime”

Japan's most respected scientific minds — immunologists, geneticists, epidemiologists — are stepping forward in defiance of silence and censorship. These are not internet theorists. These are peer-reviewed, internationally recognized experts who are now risking everything to speak a truth they say has been buried since day one.

Their target: Bill Gates and the pharmaceutical empire built around mRNA technology. “This is not a vaccine. It's a Trojan horse,” said Dr. Kenji Yamamoto, former adviser to the National Institute of Health.

“What we're seeing in these children is not side effects. It's systemic failure, by design.”

The Trojan Code: What's inside the mRNA?

At the heart of this rebellion lies a terrifying accusation: that the mRNA technology contains bioengineered elements with no medical justification — elements that serve no curative purpose, but may be designed for something else entirely.

Leaked internal documents from biotech labs working under Gates-funded grants describe the components of the vaccine:

- “Self-amplifying” components that do not degrade naturally
- Nanoparticles capable of crossing the blood-brain barrier
- Synthetic RNA sequences that affect reproductive systems

This is not conspiracy. This is forensic science. And the Japanese data is overwhelming.

Children as Test Subjects: The Unforgivable Crime

The most damning evidence? The victims. The children who received these shots were told they were protected. Instead, they were used as live trials, in what many doctors are now calling a crime against humanity.

Autopsy reports show:

- Acute inflammation of heart tissue
- Irregular clotting patterns
- Microvascular collapse

Foreign synthetic material detected in neural tissue

“THIS ISN’T MEDICINE,” one pathologist stated.

ENGLAND – TURBO CANCERS!!!

BREAKING NEWS! FAUCI and GATES ACCUSED: “THEY INJECTED THE WORLD WITH CANCER!!!”

TOP ONCOLOGIST CALLS FOR JUSTICE!

World-renowned oncologist Dr. Angus Dalgleish exposes the horrifying rise of turbo cancers linked to experimental mRNA injections pushed by Fauci and Gates. These were never vaccines — they were unsafe gene therapies. Now children are at risk, and justice must follow. This statement is totally in line with the results of Australian research studies as well, presented recently in Perth.

They called it science. They promised safety. They silenced dissent. Now, the truth is bleeding through the cracks.

According to Dr. Angus Dalgleish, a respected British oncologist and professor at St. George’s Hospital Medical School, the experimental mRNA injections promoted by Dr. Anthony Fauci and Bill Gates were not vaccines — and may have triggered a catastrophic medical chain reaction.

“These were not vaccines. These were horrible gene therapies that could actually integrate into your genome (into the entire hereditary information of your organism and the primary structure of proteins). And this is one of the reasons we’re seeing this horrendous rise in turbo cancers.” — Dr. Angus Dalgleish

This isn't a speculative theory. It's a professional diagnosis from a man who has spent decades treating and studying cancer — and now, he's sounding the alarm, loud and clear.

“These vaccines were never, ever safe. I'm terrified about what they have done to our children. I think everybody who went along with that should... go to court.”

These aren't just accusations.

They're calls for GLOBAL ACCOUNTABILITY!!!
