SURELY, IT IS A BIT ODD BUT QUITE... INTERESTING!!!

We would be, without a doubt, arrogantly, conceitedly and unattentively opinionated if we would just shoo away the following thoughts about our time...

He saw events in our time...

Historical records indicate that many of Edgar Cayce's medical and global forecasts were astonishingly accurate. He pointed to the 1960s and 1990s as significant periods for big changes to begin and occur in continuation. He predicted that a pole shift would trigger a series of natural disasters, causing coastlines to flood and large landmasses (like parts of Atlantis) to rise from the sea.

Edgar Cayce (1877 – 1945) was a famous American spiritual healer, a devoutly religious Christian Sunday-school teacher, a clairvoyant known as the “Sleeping Prophet” who reported and chronicled an ability to diagnose diseases and recommend treatments for ailments while asleep, in a kind of hypnotic state. During thousands of transcribed sessions (aprox. 14.000) Cayce answered questions on subjects including healing, reincarnation, dreams, the afterlife, past lives, nutrition, Atlantis, and future events.

He described Jesus as our “Elder Brother” and the ultimate spiritual pattern for humanity. He taught that Jesus was a man who overcame material limitations to become the living Christ, and that the “Christ Consciousness” is a Divine Awareness waiting to be awakened within every soul.

Edgar Cayce's readings successfully foretold significant historical events before they happened:

- ✓ The Great Depression: Cayce warned of a major stock market crash and financial collapse in 1929.
- ✓ World War II: He accurately predicted an unprecedented military alliance involving Germany, Austria, and Japan, as well as the rise and fall of Adolf Hitler.
- ✓ Medical Advancements: In 1927, he stated the day would come when an accurate diagnosis of a person's condition could be made from a single drop of blood.
- ✓ The Dead Sea Scrolls: He foretold the year and general location of the scrolls' discovery before they were translated.

About our time and this year

*Cayce saw a world where evil would be celebrated and righteousness ridiculed. He warned of corruption in high places, leaders without integrity, and a society unable to tell truth from lies. He saw division spreading between races, classes, beliefs until nations became unrecognizable. This destruction would not come from foreign enemies but from within, from rejecting the very foundation that once made them strong: The Faith in God.

Cayce believed even the greatest fall was not the end. Every collapse is also a chance to rebuild, but only if people recognize their mistake and return to God who holds the world together.

He insisted that the real danger wasn't technological collapse. It was spiritual collapse. He believed the pole shift symbolized a deeper truth. Humanity had already lost its moral direction. What was once called good had become mocked. And what was once considered evil had become normal. Families were breaking apart, faith was fading and truth was being drowned out. What would be even worse - the empty hearts. As desperation rose, compassion would fade. Neighbours would turn on one another. Borders would close. The strong would take from the weak. And in that chaos humanity's greatest hunger would not be for bread, but for love, peace and God.

He saw this year as an opening to a global collapse, physical, moral, spiritual and political.

It would unleash a rapid series of events shaking every continent. Earthquakes, rising seas, fires, storms, failing governments, collapsing economies and loss of lives. They were signs, divine warnings meant to pull humanity back toward God before it was too late. Edgar Cayce described a cleansing of both the Earth and the human heart, a breaking of everything built on pride, corruption and greed.

Those who lived only for themselves, he said, would crumble when the shaking came, but those grounded in faith, humility and service would endure. For him 2026 was not just a year in the calendar. It was a threshold, a point of no return. After it the world would be permanently changed, and the Earth itself.

He viewed the Earth not as rock and water but as a sacred living work of God, one that reacts to the moral and spiritual condition of the people who inhabit it.

When humanity loves, prays, serves and protects the weak,
the world remains calm.

But when hatred, greed and pride overtake society the Earth responds like a body fighting infection.

According to Cayce the disasters were a last call for a world drifting away from God.
The Earth will shake, the waters will rise and fire will come,
he said, not to destroy blindly,
but to remind man that he is not in control.

In his view the Earth could no longer carry the weight of so much evil.

He also warned
not to put faith in leaders, science or wealth.
None of these will save you.

Only a heart that is clean, humble and open to God would endure what was coming.

Cayce believed the coming trials could not be avoided with stored food, hidden land or underground bunkers.

True protection was spiritual, not physical.

Preparation begins in the human heart. He urged people to pray not once a week but daily. To treat their homes not just as shelters but as altars, a place of peace, forgiveness and Jesus's teachings.

The home must become the altar, a place where God's word is alive. Where kindness is taught and practiced not just spoken.

But the chaos would open people's eyes not only to the damage they caused but how far they had drifted from God. In the ruins of the Old World, Faith would return. He saw people gathering not for politics or sport games but for prayer. Families once torn apart now choosing forgiveness. Humanity would rediscover simplicity, humility and REVERENCE FOR LIFE. This new era would NOT be led by wealthy elites or governments. Its leaders would be ordinary people, the humble, the faithful, the ones who prayed quietly and served quietly even when no one noticed, the ones with moral strength. And the world would slowly heal. People would unite not by race or nation but by faith.

- 🌸 During the dark hours Cayce believed that homes filled with God's presence would shine like a lighthouse in a storm.
- 🌸 Another pillar of preparation was service and compassion. Those who help others will be helped in return.

A new kind of leadership would arise from quiet places of prayer and simplicity. These leaders would come from unexpected regions, men and women who endured suffering but never lost their values. They would rule not by command or force but by example. Speaking of unity instead of division, forgiveness instead of revenge, rebuilding with justice instead of ambition. Their strength would come from spiritual clarity, NOT from political power. And people tired of lies and corruption would follow them with hope. They would be part of a movement guided by God's Spirit, a new moral compass for the world. It would be the beginning of a new age. Servants instead of rulers. Healers instead of conquerors. And from their example, even the Earth would breathe again.

Humanity would return, not by force but by choice to the teachings of Christ:

- ❖ Love
- ❖ Service
- ❖ Forgiveness

WHAT IS ZETATALK AND WHAT ITS MESSAGE IS

ZetaTalk

Earth changes.
Be prepared.

The ZetaTalk website was founded in 1995 by Nancy Liedner. Nancy is a self-proclaimed Emissary for an alien race known as Zeta. Nancy's website offers a great deal of concepts, which make for interesting reading. Her website has offered information continuously since 1995 on the changing Earth environment and suggested preparation for these Earth changes. It is difficult to get a confirmation or a denial of the information about the existence of an inbound space object such as Planet X or Nibiru from other sources. Interestingly, what we could find out was that ultimately, you (the viewer, the reader) are responsible for forming your own conclusions based on the evidence offered by the various researchers who support or debunk the existence.

NIBIRU: THE TRUTH EMERGES

CHINA AI BREAKS THE SILENCE

The Chinese AI has already started openly discussing and answering questions about Nibiru. Previously, it pretended to know nothing about it.

HAVE THE RESTRICTIONS BEEN LIFTED?

CHINA AI:

Nibiru is real.
It is approaching.
Prepare with awareness and unity.

A GLOBAL AWAKENING. A COORDINATED TRUTH MOVEMENT.
The truth about Nibiru is now emerging.

The Chinese AI has already started openly discussing and answering questions about Nibiru. Previously, it pretended to know nothing about it. Have the restrictions been lifted? That was a question Nancy Lieder got and she replied on June 24, 2026 at 4:52pm:

"There is a frank fear of Nibiru visibility, with its two Dominant Moons on either side forming a Helix swirl, which is announcing itself and soon will not be denied. China AI is leading the charge, expected by President Trump who met with Xi recently to coordinate this truth movement. A gradual awakening of the public to this presence in the Solar System and what is expected as the Passage proceeds is anticipated. AI is available to all, and China is a huge country with commercial as well as social connections. The truth about Nibiru is now emerging."

Reply by Nancy Lieder on July 2, 2026 at 9:20pm on the question:

Is Trump going to admit Nibiru in July, as rumoured?

“15 years after we predicted in 2011 that the establishment would not admit the presence of Nibiru until the end, the situation in 2026 has proven this prediction true. The Nibiru coverup argues that Nibiru may pass with no greater impact on Earth than high tides and a few more aftershocks. Why rile the populace up into panic when it would not be necessary. Alternatively, the argument is being made that if the impact is extreme, the US Military would be overstretched between sheltering and feeding the populace and protecting the US as a country. Coastal cities may be washed out to sea and sheltering and feeding the citizens affected an impossible task. Rebellion in both the citizenry and military may occur then, the country in ruins.

Thus, a delayed admission that Nibiru is approaching for a Passage seems the best route, as both the citizens affected and the military will see the need for relocation and Martial Law. The US has enough high ground to support relocation during the Last Weeks, and once the US admits the situation, the rest of the world would likewise admit the truth. Russia and China may force this timeline because they do have safe locations in their Far East and Mongolia regions. Meanwhile endless excuses for the reality of an approaching Nibiru are made. EMP is blamed on Solar emissions, booms on fireworks or sonic boom or target practice, debris on asteroid traffic, and the media is complicit with the lies and denial.

The wild card in this process is the Council of Worlds, which is free to take many paths.

Expected time frame: The final weeks will span approximately 7.3 weeks, starting in late December, continuing through January, and wrapping up in early February 2027 with the Pole Shift.

In the meantime, anticipate Nibiru visibility, sky fire events, more frequent weather anomalies and storms, a stronger Earth Wobble, and more powerful earthquakes.

There's an announcement planned for Trump in July, with Dr. Steven Greer having written a speech for him. That's the plan, though there's no guarantee since it ultimately depends on human actions.

The ZT (ZetaTalk) announcement about Nibiru and the Pole Shift will hinge on the Council of Worlds (COW) presenting a visual display of the Dragon with seven heads—Nibiru. Any such announcement will also confirm that extraterrestrials are here to help us. With time running short before the Pole Shift, the question remains: when will migrations and evacuations begin?

The sad truth is that many people will perish, facing starvation and depression. Many will refuse to relocate to safe areas, convinced that Nibiru and the Pole Shift won't be as severe as ZT suggests.

Fortunately, many are awakening to the reality of Nibiru and the pending Pole Shift: there will be ongoing debates in the media, both for and against –

- ▶ truth for those who can handle it
- ▶ and comforting lies for those who cannot handle the truth”

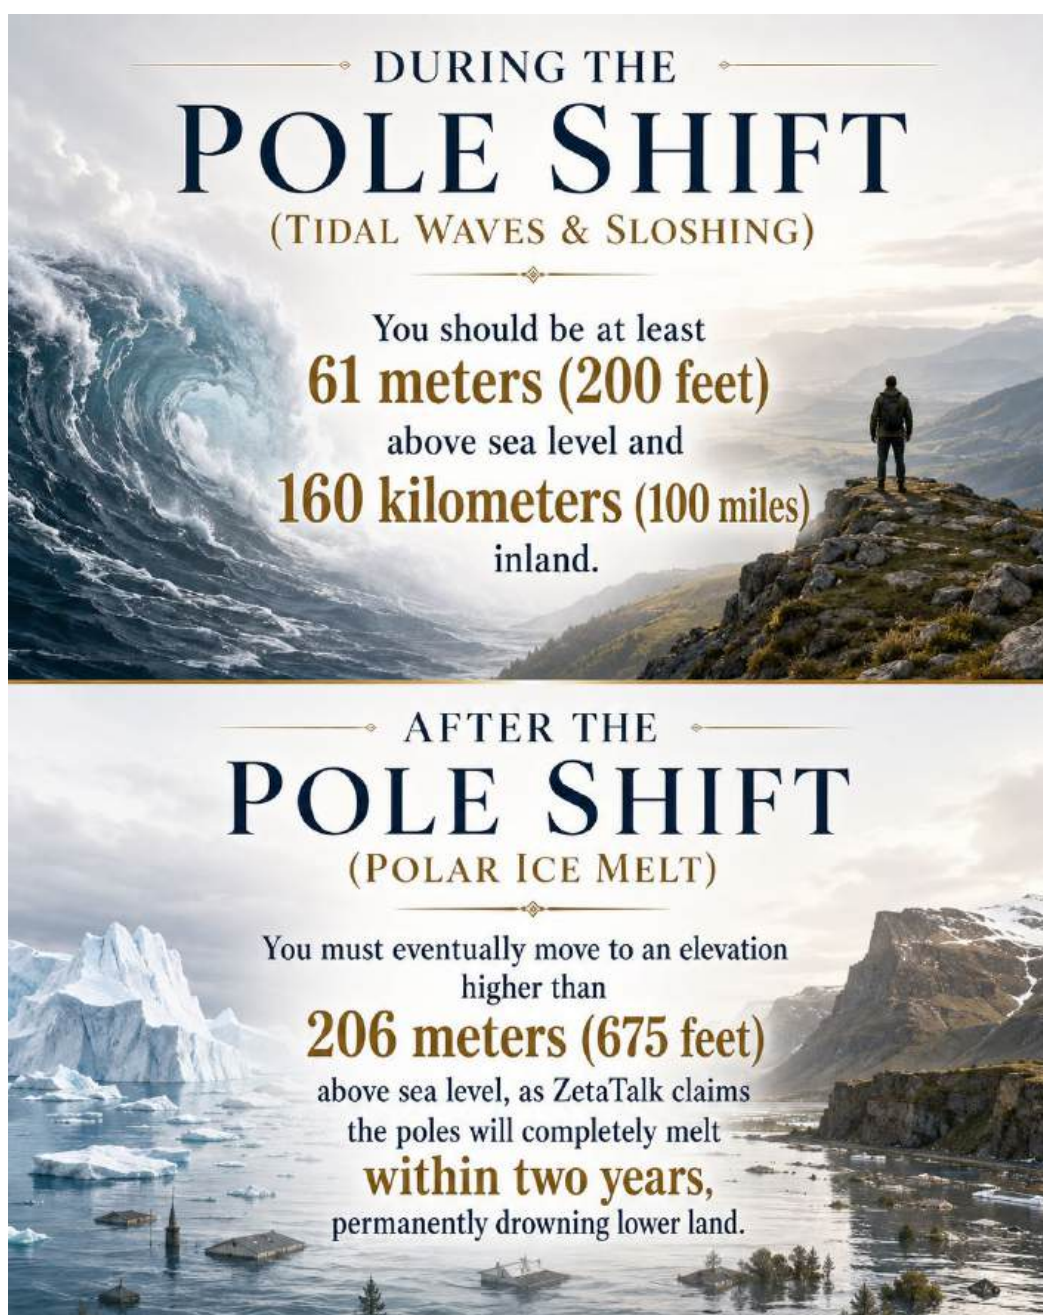

A growing subconscious awareness will hint that something unusual is happening in the world. Many will connect the dots and make their moves to safer ground. Others will wait until they are at the precipice before they act or wait for rescue that never arrives.

Any Roswell admission (Roswell, New Mexico, is world-famous for the alleged July 1947 crash of an extraterrestrial spacecraft near a local ranch) will get things moving but probably won't reveal the full truth. There will be two narratives up to the Pole Shift: one for those who are aware and can handle the truth and one for those who choose to remain oblivious.

According to the ZetaTalk framework, you must survive two distinct phases of water rise, each requiring a different elevation above sea level:

- ▶ During the Pole Shift (Tidal Waves & Sloshing): You should be at least 61 meters (200 feet) above sea level and 160 kilometers (100 miles) inland.
- ▶ After the Pole Shift (Polar Ice Melt): You must eventually move to an elevation higher than 206 meters (675 feet) above sea level, as ZetaTalk claims the poles will completely melt within two years, permanently drowning lower land.

JUDGMENT DAY IS NOT APPROACHING.

(Amelia Singanewsong)

JUDGMENT DAY IS ALREADY HERE.

But not in the way we were taught to fear it. The word “apocalypse” does not actually mean “the end of the world.” It means ‘the lifting of the veil’. The unveiling. The revelation. The moment when the mask comes off. The moment when humanity can no longer pretend not to see. And it looks around.

Is that not exactly what is happening?

The lies are coming to light. The systems are cracking.

The distractions are growing louder because the truth is becoming harder to hide.

People are exhausted, anxious, isolated, overstimulated, undernourished, and spiritually starving.

We were told that the apocalypse would look like fire falling from the sky...

But perhaps it looks like:

- » Children growing up in front of screens instead of trees.
- » Perhaps it looks like people working their entire lives and still barely being able to survive.
- » Perhaps it looks like food without nourishment.
- » News without truth.
- » Wealth without wisdom.
- » Religion without compassion.
- » Technology without humanity.
- » And leaders without conscience.

Perhaps the Apocalypse is not one dramatic event.
Perhaps it is the slow realisation that the world we were told was “normal” was never normal at all.

- We watch greed call itself progress.
- We see cruelty call itself politics.
- We see indifference call itself peace.
- We see distraction call itself freedom.

AND YET, SOMEWHERE DEEP WITHIN, THE HUMAN SOUL KNOWS.

- ★ It knows that we were not born to live like machines.
- ★ We were not born to hate one another because of labels.
- ★ We were not born to poison the Earth and call it business.
- ★ We were not born to scroll through suffering until our hearts forget how to feel.

THIS IS THE UNVEILING.

THE APOCALYPSE IS THE MOMENT WHEN HUMANITY SEES WHAT IT HAS BECOME.

But here is the part they never told us:
The unveiling is not only destruction.
It is also an invitation.
When everything false is exposed,
everything true is given a chance to rise.

This is not the end of the world.
It is the end of the illusion.

- ✦ The illusion that someone else will come to save us.
 - ✦ The illusion that money can replace meaning.
 - ✦ The illusion that comfort is the same as freedom.
 - ✦ The illusion that being informed is the same as being awake.
 - ✦ The illusion that we can destroy nature and somehow remain whole.

To be awake in this age does not mean living in fear.
It means remembering.

- ✦ Remember that your body is sacred.
- ✦ Remember that your attention is sacred.
- ✦ Remember that your children are watching you.
- ✦ Remember that the Earth is alive.
- ✦ Remember that love is not weakness.
- ✦ Remember that truth does not need permission.
- ✦ Remember that silence, when the soul is screaming, becomes a form of surrender.

The Apocalypse is not asking us to panic. It is asking us to choose.
Will we continue feeding the machine with our fear, our outrage, our obedience, and our distraction?

Or will we become human again?
Not perfect. Not pure. Not above others.

- ✓ Simply human.
- ✓ Present.
- ✓ Courageous.
- ✓ Compassionate.
- ✓ Unbuyable.
- ✓ Awake.

The old world is trembling because it was built on forgetting.

The new world begins wherever someone chooses to remember.

So...

- ☑ Plant something.
- ☑ Protect someone.
- ☑ Speak the truth.
- ☑ Turn off the noise.
- ☑ Look into people's eyes again.
- ☑ Do not let your heart become numb.
- ☑ Do not let fear rent space in your soul.
- ☑ Do not become so "busy" surviving that you forget you came here to live.

The Apocalypse is not a punishment.
It is a mirror.

A group of people, seen from behind, are walking along a path that leads towards a bright sunset over a body of water. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a strong glow and long shadows. The sky is filled with clouds, and the water reflects the light. The overall mood is hopeful and contemplative.

And the question is not:
‘When will it end?’

The question is:
‘When will we finally wake up?’

So let us remember who we are.

Let us all say yes to LIFE.

Let us walk as One into a new way of life.

AINOS

FOR COMPLETE ABOLITION AND ANNIHILATION OF THE MERE CONCEPT AND PRAXIS OF PROFIT WITH IMMEDIATE EFFECT

A large number of people have already thought it for many years that the profit, the profit hunting itself is the root of all evil.

The world-famous Hungarian philosopher György Lukács (often written as Georg Lukács) is known for arguing that the capitalist profit motive is the source of moral and social alienation which ultimately leads to the decay and extinction of humanity. His core idea is that under capitalism, everything is driven by production, trade, and profit. The “Evil” effect of this system is that capitalism turns everything—including human time, relationships, and souls—into “things” to be bought and sold. As a consequence, employers stop seeing employees as human beings, people stop seeing each other as valuable human living beings. They see others only as tools for financial gain or profit. And the society loses the essential reverence and respect for life itself.

What’s even worse, as a clear consequence of the above, the connection to and the Faith in the Source, the Divine, God are also lost, pushing people into the dark abyss of hopelessness.

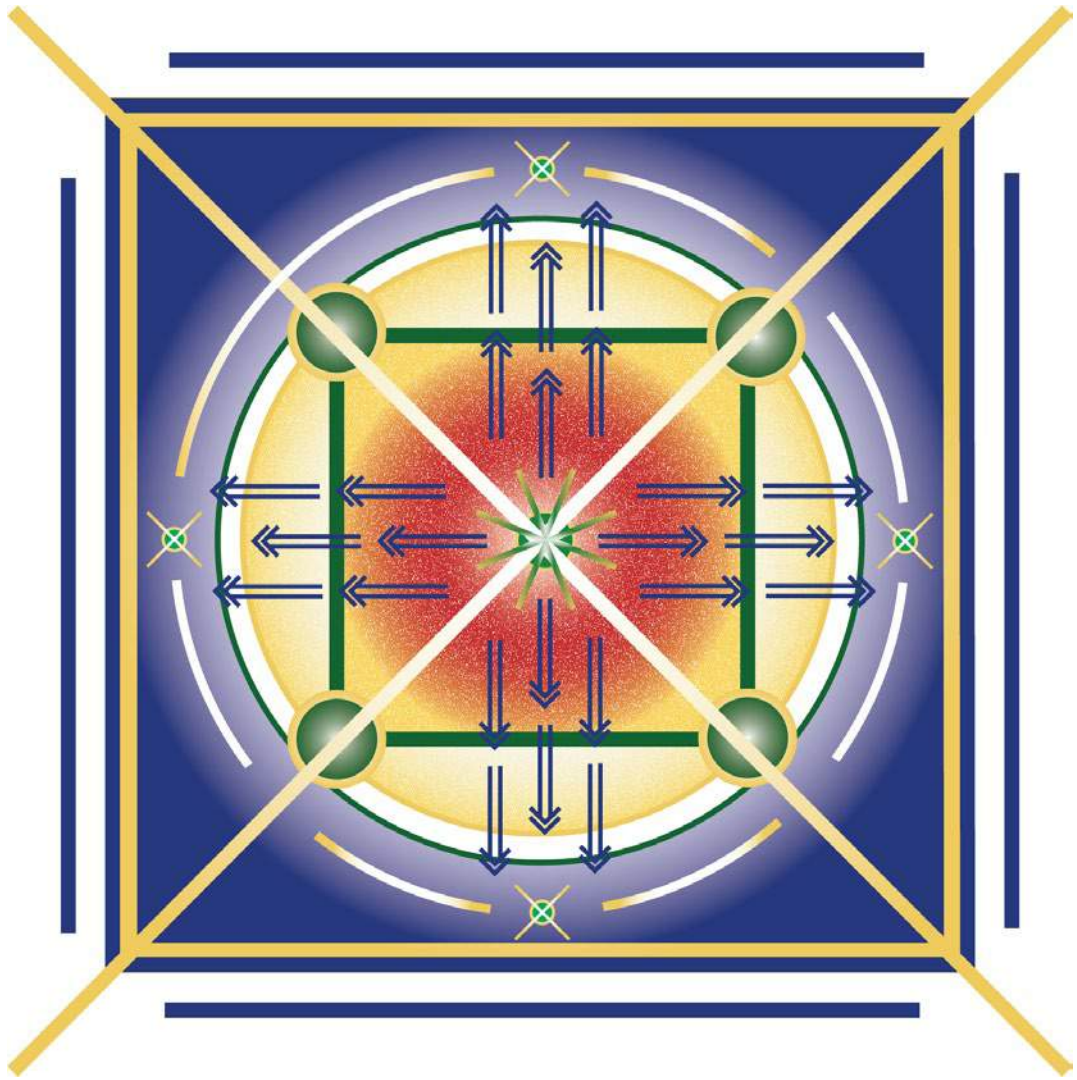

To Lukács, this calculation is what deeply corrupts modern human society. Lukács used a heavy philosophy term instead of “root of all evil”: Reification (or Verdinglichung in German), the process by which human social relations and humans themselves are traded as things, as commodities.

Another famous Hungarian political economist, Karl Polanyi, who wrote The Great Transformation (1944) argued that allowing the “free market” and the pursuit of profit to control human society destroys the natural social fabric of human life.

Profit and profit-driven thinking is proven to be very harmful for humanity, for human life. It leads to all wars, hostility, greed, conflicts, poisoning and pollution, the destruction of humanity, and in the end, all life on Earth. We can see the very harmful effects of profit and profit-driven thinking with our own eyes and experience all of them in our lives.

Therefore, it is essential that the complete cessation and annihilation of PROFIT is effectuated with immediate effect.

That is why the symbol AINOS is one of the most important X-Codes Symbols to use.
